Fr. Robert A. Sirico

Co-founder of the Acton Institute

During his studies and early ministry, Rev. Robert A. Sirico experienced a growing concern over the lack of training religious studies' students receive in fundamental economic principles, leaving them poorly equipped to understand and address today's social problems. As a result of these concerns, Fr. Sirico co-founded the Acton Institute with Kris Alan Mauren in 1990.

As president of the Acton Institute, Fr. Sirico lectures at colleges, universities, and business organizations throughout the U.S. and abroad. His writings on religious, political, economic, and social matters are published in a variety of journals including: The New York Times, The Wall Street Journal, Forbes, The London Financial Times, The Washington Times, The Detroit News, and National Review. Fr. Sirico is often called upon by members of the broadcast media for statements regarding economics, civil rights, and issues of religious concern providing commentary for CNN, ABC, the BBC, NPR, and CBS' 60 Minutes, among others.

Fr. Sirico holds a Master of Divinity degree from the Catholic University of America and is currently pastor of St. Mary Catholic Church in Kalamazoo, Michigan.
